Staff Training Tool

1. It is advisable that clinicians involve both the adolescent and the parent/guardian in issues involving consent. (circle)

True False

- 2. A minor may consent to treatment if the following conditions apply: (Circle all that apply)
  - a. Minor is emancipated, married or homeless
  - b. Care relates to sexually transmitted diseases, sexual assault, or HIV testing in an outpatient/ emergency basis
  - c. Care relates to alcoholism or substance abuse
  - d. Care relates to abortion
  - e. Care relates to immunizations
- 3. If you obtain the consent of only the minor for a pelvic exam and then prescribe oral contraceptives, the parents may still have a copy of the entire medical record without the minor's authorization.(circle)

True False

4. If a minor's parents request that a drug screen test be done on their adolescent, the preferred approach is to facilitate open lines of communication between the adolescent and the parent. (circle)

True False

5. Outpatient psychological treatment/counseling can be rendered to minors without parental consent. (circle)

True False

6. If a minor's parents are divorced, only the custodial parent has a right to the medical record of the minor. (circle)

True False

7. If a minor has provided legal consent for care, information about that care should not be discussed with the parent without the minor's consent.(circle)

True False

Staff Name

- 8. Under Arizona law, a parent may obtain the minor's medical records except in the following cases: (circle all that apply)
  - a. Care relates to immunizations
  - b. Care relates to sexually transmitted diseases, sexual assault, or HIV testing in an outpatient emergency basis
  - c. Care relates to abortion
  - d. Care relates to alcoholism or substance abuse
- 9. An adolescent is considered emancipated if... (circle all that apply)
  - a. self-supporting and living away from parents
  - b. pregnant
  - c. in the military
  - d. married
- 10. When rendering emergency medical, surgical, hospital or health services, should care be withheld while waiting to secure consent from a parent or guardian? (circle)

True False

- 11. In an introductory conversation, a clinician may reassure adolescents that their care and information will be confidential except for the following situations:
  - a. their behavior is a risk to themselves or someone else
  - they have an infectious disease that must be reported
  - c. any bill sent to their parents will likely include information about specific services provided
  - d. any evidence of abuse must be reported

Comments:			