2. You will be able to bring in your personal passion on specific human rights issues.
3. You will learn about blogging and writing for digital media.
4. You will create, manage, and post content.
5. You will contribute to the IHR team and add your voice in our work.
6. You will have plenty of additional opportunities in related projects.

What We Require:

1. Interest and passion for human rights.
2. UAB undergraduate student, major and year of study, open knowledge of international politics and current events are a plus.
3. Strong writing and communication skills.
4. Organized, with an ability to prioritize time-sensitive assignments.
5. Creative and flexible.
6. Willing to attend IHR events.
7. Familiarity with WordPress is a plus, but not required (we will train you).
8. Interest in nonprofit management and community development.

What we offer:

1. The position begins in September (or as negotiated).
2. You will be expected to dedicate 5 hours per week.
3. We pay $12/hour.
4. Work in a diverse and enthusiastic team.
5. Primary access to speakers, visitors, and human rights experts.
6. Hands on experience with blogging, human rights, and education.

Details:

Please send your resume, unofficial transcript, writing sample (could be a paper you wrote for a class), and statement of interest (1-2 double spaced pages, detailing your interest in human rights, and what you would like to contribute to the IHR team) to Dr. Tina Kempin Reuter, Director of the Institute for Human Rights, at tkreuter@uab.edu by September 2, 2024.
