timely fashion. The course also emphasizes critical thinking and communication skills, both written and verbal.

Methods of teaching and learning:

- 26 class meetings of 80 minutes with presentations by the instructor as well as by students.
- A significant time commitment (certainly more than class time) is to be expected.
- Working in groups is encouraged but not required.

Assessment procedures:

The total score for the course comprises the exam scores weighted at 30% (midterm) and 70% (final). To receive an A, B, or C you will need 90%, 75%, and 50% of the total score, respectively.

Course policies:

- Please make sure that you are able to receive e-mails through your Blazer-ID account. Official course announcements may be sent to that address.
- If the midterm test is missed due to a serious verifiable circumstance or official university business, the test grade will be replaced with the properly rescaled final exam score. You have to advise the instructor of such circumstances at the earliest possibility.
- No laptops or phones etc. will be allowed during the exams.
- You may use the lecture notes as well as your own notes during the exams.

Tips:

- By working steadily and regularly, you will increase your chances to succeed in this course.
- Remember, being a full-time student is a full-time job.
- Seek help when you need it.

Disability Support Services

UAB is committed to providing an accessible learning experience for all students.
