

Blazer Home First-Time Home Buyer's Course: STEPS TO HOME OWNERSHIP

The Blazer Home First-Time Homebuyers Course: Steps to Home Ownership is a two-hour, self-paced course offered from the Freddie Mac, a public government-sponsored enterprise, and sponsored by the UAB Employee Assistance & Counseling Center (EACC).

When you successfully complete the Freddie Mac tutorial, your certificate will satisfy the Blazer Home First-Time Home Buyer's education requirement.

1. Click on the link after these instructions.
2. Carefully read the Highlights of the Course and Certificate of Completion Instructions. Please note: The Freddie Mac tutorial does not work on mobile devices (e.g., tablets, iPads, phones).
3. There is a black hyperlink at the top of the page — Learning Paths! Hover over the link to begin and then click on Homeownership Education Certificate.
4. Next, click on Log In/Register for the CreditSmart Homebuyer U course in the middle or top right-hand side of the page. Then create an account by clicking on “Sign up now.”
5. You will be asked for the following information:
 - Your first and last name — required
 - Your email address (Use the email address you prefer, UAB or personal.) — required
 - Create a password
 - Enter your zip code then register
6. Once you have access to the Introduction to CreditSmart Online Training page, you will be asked “Are you working with a financial institute or housing organization?” After answering the question, complete the rest of the fields and click continue to start the course.
 - It is important how you enter your name on this page. What you enter here will be how your name appears on your certificate when you pass.
 - Remember to print your Freddie Mac certificate.
