

2025 CRISP

MON., JUNE 2 - FRI., JULY 25, 2025 (EIGHT WEEKS)

The Cancer Research Immersion Student Program (CRISP) is now accepting applications!

ELIGIBILITY

Open to undergraduates with aspirations of pursuing a career in cancer research and cancer related health professions at:

- Morehouse College (MC)
- Spelman College (SC)
- Clark Atlanta University (CAU)
- Tuskegee University (TU)
- University of Alabama at Birmingham (UAB)

PROGRAM DETAILS

- Work with cancer researchers and scientists
- Introduction to cancer research with faculty mentors
- Develop a comprehensive career plan
- Classes in Career Roadmaps, Scientific Writing, and Cultural Competency
- MCAT and GRE workshops
- Stipend: $1,400 per month ($2,800 for the summer)
- Housing (subject to availability):
 - Morehouse School of Medicine for AUCC trainees
 - UAB for Tuskegee students only (not available to UAB students)

Applications due March 1, 2025. For more information, visit www.uab.edu/medicine/mherc/training/undergraduate.

ABOUT CRISP

CRISP is a National Cancer Institute (NCI) funded program of the Morehouse School of Medicine, Tuskegee University, and O'Neal Comprehensive Cancer Center at the University of Alabama at Birmingham Partnership.

CONTACT

Tuskegee University
Honghe Wang, PhD
334-724-4986
hwang@tuskegee.edu

Morehouse School of Medicine
Shailesh Singh, PhD (for CAU, MC, and SC students)
404-756-5718
shsingh@msm.edu

UAB
Ann Smith, MPH
256-454-2204
mherctraining@uabmc.edu

CLICK OR SCAN QR CODE TO APPLY

